A Word from our Chairman

Oh, is it that time of the year again? Each time we walk through the door of the Estrel once more, it feels like it has not been more than a week since we left. Eurofurence has settled down in Berlin, and coming back feels very much like coming home now.

At this point I usually brag about the achievements we've made and the challenges we had to overcome to make this the best con ever. But I would like to start this convention on a more sober note than usual. In January, the sad news reached me that the respected father of Onkel Kage, Mr. Samuel Conway Sr. had passed away at the age of 83.

He and his wife Wilma came to Europe in 2006 to celebrate their golden anniversary, and of course Sam junior had to drag them along to Eurofurence. They had already been honorary staff members at Anthrocon for a couple of years, and they were known to be the kind of wonderful people you just want to sit down and share a glass of wine with. We felt it was a huge honor to welcome them, even more so for this special occasion. And so we came up with a very special idea.

Between two stage events, we lured them out of the room, and while they were away, everyone stood in a big circle around the dance floor, holding a candle each. We killed the lights, and the astonished couple was led back into the now entirely candle lit room. We played "Red Sails in the Sunset" sung by Nat King Cole. And then they danced to it, in a circle of hundreds of candles, to the same song that was played at their wedding dance fifty years ago. It was a magical moment that still brings a tear of joy to my eyes when I think of it. I have never seen a happier couple in my life. And for a moment we all felt like part of a big family.

For me, this feeling persists until today. And the memory of Sam, the quiet southern gentleman. A happy man, who loved to see people laugh. Goodbye Sam. And thanks.

You will be missed.

Yours truly,

Cheetah, the Chairman.

Security Service

A warm welcome from our Security & Safety Team

Your safety is important to Eurofurence, and so our security service is on duty for you around the clock. Our team consists of professionals and volunteers alike and, just as everyone in the staff of the convention, they all do their duty for free. They provide qualified medical and security service to all our attendees, 24 hours a day, during the entire convention.

How to recognize us

All members of the security team either have a shirt, a vest or an armband with our official logo "Convention Security", an additional badge reading "security" and the year 2016. Anyone without this combination is not a member of our team!

Did you know?

- Some of our security personnel will be out and about wearing blue high-visibility vests and blue hydration backpacks. These water-carriers give out free water to fursuiting attendees, especially around fursuit events. If you see one of them, just wave at them to receive as much water as you like without the need to walk to the Headless Lounge.

- Security officers roam the convention and are on duty at many locations around the hotel, such as the Art Show or the camp fire. For your convenience during your stay in the convention center, they also offer a locker service: items that are restricted in the Art Show and Dealers' Den like cameras or backpacks will be guarded there for free.

- The Eurofurence Convention Security service has a large team of certified and friendly paramedics on site at all times. They can take care of anything from a minor scratch to a life-threatening injury. Please note though, that due to German laws they are not allowed to hand out medication e.g. painkillers. Contact us if you need any medical support.

As you can see, our security service team is there for you whenever you need them. Even though some of them might look intimidating with all their equipment, do not forget that they are all furries themselves. They take their job seriously, not themselves!

So don't be shy - come and say hi!

How to contact us

If you need any help, have concerns, need medical assistance or simply have a question: do not hesitate to talk to any member of our security service team! Can't see any of them around? No problem, there are multiple ways to contact security and first aid:

- Call our security service, they have a hotline for your convenience! You can reach them at the number:
  +49 3222 2133 812
  This hotline will be answered 24/7 by our security dispatchers. They will gladly answer your questions or send help your way immediately.

- Visit us in our office! (Especially when you want to check in your "weapon" or potentially dangerous item.) You can find us day and night right next to the ConOps office in the Estrel Hall C.

- Use a callbox! No security officer around and no phone either? No problem! Our Convention Security team has set up callboxes all over the hotel. Simply walk up to one, press the button for security / first aid and you will be connected to our security dispatchers immediately. (Hint: if you just need information, you can use these systems to call the ConOps office as well.)

Please refer to the map on pages 34 - 35 to find out where our callboxes, ConOps or our office are located.

EF PRIME HD

EF Prime is back, and better than ever!

As always, we're here to provide you with the latest information on upcoming events, straight to your hotel room on TV channel 1. We'll even show you stage events live! Even when the stage crew isn't ready for the next event yet, we'll have something for you: with many years of conventions behind us, there are plenty of highlights to show. For the social media fans amongst you, the @EF_prime Twitter feed is back as well. Just mention us and you might end up on the screen!

Rules of Conduct

Eurofurence likes to present itself as a professional convention of friendly, respectful and open-minded members of the furry community and their friends. As a condition of membership, all Eurofurence attendees are required to abide by these rules of conduct for the entire duration of their stay, even prior to opening or after closing of the convention. When in doubt about any of these rules, please ask - we will gladly answer all your questions. However, please understand that we will not debate these rules with you during the convention. The rules of conduct will be strictly enforced by Eurofurence security volunteers who will be clearly identified as such on site. If you have any problem with any action taken by a staff member you may take the matter up with the Chief of Security or the Chairman.

GENERAL RULES

Any action or behavior that causes significant interference with convention operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects Eurofurence's relationship with its guests, its venues or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in permanent suspension of membership. This general rule supersedes all others listed below and may be invoked at any time.

=» Please treat each other respectfully.

=» You are liable for any damage you might cause.

=» Always follow the directions by convention staff and security.

=» Harassment of any kind, including physical assault, battery, deliberate intimidation, stalking, or unwelcome physical attention, will not be tolerated.

=» Please be aware that the lobby, the foyers and the restaurants are public areas, and that there may be regular hotel guests around who are not taking part in our convention. Please help us to give them the best possible impression of our fandom!

REGISTRATION AND BADGES

=» You must be at least 18 years old on the first day of the convention.

=» Eurofurence functions are open only to registered attendees.

=» Attendees are identified by their personal membership badge.

=» A badge is valid only for the person to whom it was issued and may not be shared.

=» Badges must be presented and/or surrendered to any staff member requesting it.

=» Changing or obscuring information on your badge is not allowed.

HOTEL RULES

=» The consumption of food or drink purchased from outside of the hotel is not permitted in the hotel's public areas.

=» It is strictly forbidden to throw/dangle/hang anything out of any windows, balconies or any other elevated locations. Violators will be expelled from the convention.

=» Attendees may not enter the service areas of the hotel. This includes all backstage areas, service elevators, the rooftops, emergency exits and all areas marked as "Staff Only".

=» Disabling or deliberately triggering fire-protection devices (such as smoke detectors, sprinklers, door alarms) is strictly prohibited.

=» The sale of any kind of merchandise outside the official Dealers' Den requires explicit permission by the Eurofurence Board of Directors.

=» No sleeping in the lobby, the hallways or the meeting rooms. Get a room, please!

=» For safety reasons it is not allowed to bring dogs, cats or other animals into your hotel room or any of the convention event areas.

PARTIES AND GATHERINGS

=» Gatherings in hotel rooms must not generate any noise that can be heard in neighboring rooms during nighttime hours.

=» Hotel doors must be kept shut during such gatherings and guests are not permitted to congregate in the hotel corridors.

=» Loud parties will be given a single warning to remain quiet. No second warnings will be given before action is taken by the hotel to remove the offending individuals.

=» All room occupants are equally responsible for cleaning up after a party. Trash must be put into bags. Don't leave the mess for housekeeping.

=» Security is required to clear out overcrowded rooms. For your own safety we recommend keeping the occupancy below 10 in a regular room, or below 20 in a junior suite.

CLOTHING AND DECENCY

Wearing costumes, accessories or displaying items made out of real fur is not allowed. Nudity exceeding the equivalent of a non-thong bathing suit is not allowed in public. To prevent damage to costumes and hotel property, body paint requires an individual permission by the Chief of Security. Face makeup does not require permission.
Sexual behavior that goes beyond a mere display of affection is not allowed in public. Blatant exposure of fetish gear is not permitted in public, even if it is part of a costume. Display of adult materials (such as room signs, flyers, business cards, posters and drawings on public message boards) is not permitted in public areas of the hotel and convention center. The limit for "adult themed" materials is the equivalent of what you can see on the magazine covers at an average German newsstand. Drawing the line for "fetish gear" is a little bit more tricky. To avoid unexpected differences with our security staff, please ask us in advance if you're unsure about the adequacy of an item. When used as a fashion statement or part of a costume, the following items are usually allowed:

=» Collars (without leash).

=» Decorative Wristbands (without D-rings).

=» Sled Dog Harnesses (only if part of a matching costume).

The following items are explicitly NOT allowed in public:

=» Full-body rubber or vinyl costumes.

=» Costumes that are visibly "anatomically correct".

=» Costumes or accessories related to age-play, pet-play or BDSM.

=» Costumes indecently revealing the wearers own private anatomy.

We may take the liberty to allow additional exceptions if your outfit is exceptionally discrete, tasteful and/or good looking - no promise, though.

ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

Persons who are intoxicated to the point of incapacity will be escorted to their room, and may consequentially be banned from the convention. Any individual found to be in possession of or distributing illegal or controlled substances will be removed and reported directly to the local authorities. Smoking is not permitted anywhere inside the hotel and convention center, except for the Smokers' Lounge. You are expected to drink responsibly. You will be held responsible for what you do, even when drunk.

WEAPONS

All weapons, including look-alikes, replicas, tools and toys must be approved immediately after your registration on site. Please go to the ConOps office for approval. Security may require your weapon to be peace-bound. Tampering with the peace bonding is not allowed. No water pistols, silly string, or any thrown or projectile-type toy may be used in any area of the hotel or convention center. Mock fights, swordplay, fire breathing or any other dangerous activities are not allowed. Exceptions for staged events are possible, but require an individual permission by the Chief of Security. Please make sure to inquire ahead of time - preferably before the convention.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEO

Eurofurence e.V. reserves all rights to video and photo material gathered at the convention with the exception of footage from private rooms. Eurofurence e.V. grants you the right to use videos and photos you have taken at the convention for private and/or non-commercial purposes. Publication in for-profit media requires written permission by the Board of Directors. Official Eurofurence camera teams may record video and take photos in the public areas of the convention and during events to be used for publication. You agree that videos and pictures taken of you can be used in such publications without release or compensation. A release will only be required for material filmed in situations where a reasonable expectation of privacy exists. Photography and filming is strictly forbidden in the Art Show. Cameras and cell phones will have to be left outside. Other restrictions or rules may apply for certain events, and will be announced on location.

THE BOTTOM LINE

That being said, many of the above rules involve "worst-case" scenarios and are put into place to ensure the safety and comfort of our members. In the past, Eurofurence has generally been a quiet and pleasurable experience, and we anticipate no difficulties, as our members as a whole are rational and responsible adults. Eurofurence is prepared to deal with any or all of the above scenarios in a rapid and efficient manner, should they occur. We thank our members for their past cooperation and for their continued assistance in making this a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone. Have fun - just please remember to be courteous of those around you while doing so! We hope you will have a great time!

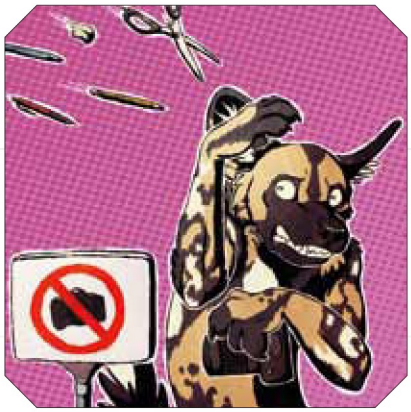
Long story short...

Always wear your badge.

Dress appropriately for public.
Usually common sense is the best guideline!

No weapons!
No, you may not press that red button.

Pictures taken of you at the convention may be used for non-profit media.



No cameras in the Art Show!

Respect other furs' privacy.
Basically... don't be creepy.

Consumption of food and drinks purchased elsewhere is not permitted in the hotel's public areas.

Drink responsibly. Otherwise you'll spoil the convention not only for yourself.

No smoking/vaping inside the hotel!
Only exception is the Smokers' Lounge.

CONOPS

The department for Convention Operations (ConOps) offers help and assistance to all guests. If you encounter any problem and your friends or neighbors can not help you, feel free to visit us.

For example we can help you with:

- Lost or found items
- Forwarding messages to EF staff members
- Information about the convention, events and panels
- Volunteering to support Eurofurence

You can contact us in our office located in the Estrel Hall C.

Also, please note that we do our best to be available for you during our busy opening hours (between 10:00 and 22:00), but if we happen to not be in our office when you arrive, please wait for a few minutes.

GUEST OF HONOR
Dorothy Hearst

I'm the author of Promise of the Wolves, Secrets of the Wolves, and Spirit of the Wolves, which make up The Wolf Chronicles trilogy. The trilogy tells the story of how the wolf became the dog from the point of view of a young she-wolf living 14.000 years ago in what is now Southern Europe. It is also the story of humans' connection to the natural world and how, if we continue to treat wolves and other parts of nature as "other" rather than "self" we will destroy the environment we depend upon to survive.

The story is told by Kaala, a wolf of mixed blood born into the Swift River pack in the Wide Valley. Kaala struggles to be accepted into her pack, and as soon as she makes progress, she saves the life of a human child, breaking one of the most important wolf laws—to stay away from the humans. Risking expulsion from their pack and banishment from the Wide Valley, Kaala and her young pack mates begin to hunt with the humans and thus discover the long-hidden bond between the two clans. But when war between wolves and humans threatens, Kaala learns the lies behind the wolf's promise. Lies that force her to choose between safety for herself and her friends and the survival of her pack—and perhaps of all wolf- and humankind.

Before the wolves asked me to tell their story (they needed me because they can't type very well; their paws are too big and they keep hitting the space key when they don't mean to) I was an acquiring editor signing books for people who work in nonprofit organizations. Before that, I was an actor in New York. I never got paid for acting, but my training has influenced me in many ways.

I'm also a martial artist. I spent 8 years studying taekwondo and have a first degree black belt. For the past eight years, I've been studying White Crane Silat (Peratuan Gerak Badan) an Indonesian form of kung fu influenced by Shaolin. Martial arts influences my writing in many ways, in particular by teaching me to persevere in the face of frustration and to see writing as a practice.

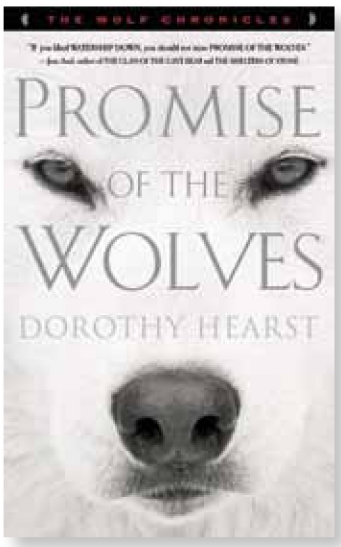
I've never been to Germany (unless you count the Frankfurt airport where a very nice young security man once took apart my nail clippers—removing the tiny little nail file—so I could take it on the plane) though my family emigrated from Germany to the United States at the end of the 19th century.

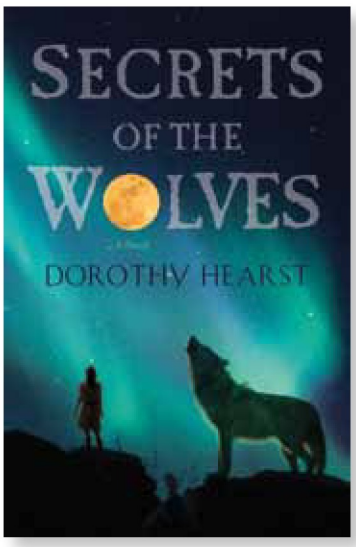
Wolves, Co-evolution and The Wolf Chronicles

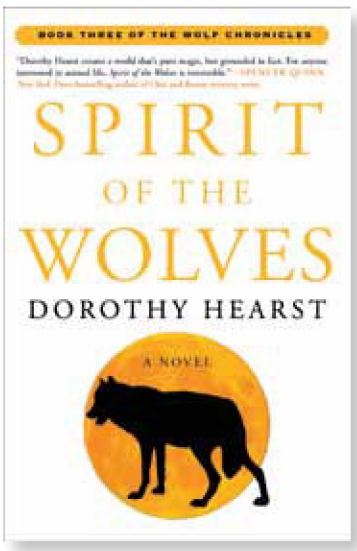
I've always loved dogs, and wondered why we have such a remarkable relationship with them. We treat them as our family and they treat us as pack. I was fascinated with the question of how that came to be. I'm also very interested in human evolution, in particular by unexplained things, like how we became the dominant species on the planet.

I had recently read Michael Pollen's Botany of Desire and one of the things he suggests is that plants domesticated us as much as we domesticated them. I wondered if that could be the same for dogs. I heard someone say "I'm going to write a novel about how the wolf became the dog from the wolf's point of view." No one else was in the room, so I took the idea.

I knew nothing about wolves when I began writing The Wolf Chronicles. In fact, I thought, as many people do, that wolves were vicious and would attack humans. Then I started my research and found out that not only did wolves not attack humans, they had very complex social structures that are very similar to human social structures. I also learned about the theory of wolf-human co-evolution, the idea that wolves, and later dogs influenced our evolution and we theirs, and that they may have helped make us the dominant species on the planet. That's when The Wolf Chronicles really began to take shape. It became about our relationship with the wild and about how the demonization of the wolf is the demonization of our own wild nature and connection to nature.







EF 22 Charity: The Painted Dog Conservation

Eurofurence proudly presents our charity for 2016: The Painted Dog Conservation. Fighting to save the last of an endangered species, it is not only a worthy charity, but also one that desperately needs all the help we can give it.

You may already know the African wild dog, also known as the painted dog (Lycaon pictus). These beautiful hunting dogs (which are actually not dogs at all, but a completely different species) have splotched fur patterns and big round ears. What most people do not know is that the painted dog is sadly also one of the most endangered species of Africa, with fewer dogs left on the whole continent than there are furries at Anthrocon!

The painted dog is not closely related to other canids, having both a unique physique and social behavior. They communicate with each other through high-pitched yips and hoots. Unlike other canid species, packs of painted dogs feed their pups first, and care for their sick and injured.

Sadly, myths and misunderstandings have given them a bad reputation, causing them to be persecuted by humans. Many more are killed on the road, get caught in snares set by poachers to get bushmeat, or catch diseases from domestic dogs. Their numbers have dwindled from 500.000 to less than 7.000 over the past century.

The Painted Dog Conservation is devoted to the protection of the wild dogs and is active in Zimbabwe, where the local population of dogs is one of the last strongholds of the species. Their conservation methods help both the dogs and the local human population in a lasting way, making the future outlook of the species brighter.

These are a few of the ways the PDC helps the painted dogs:

- Their anti-poaching team patrols daily to directly protect the dogs and remove metal wire snares from the bush. They have picked up over 20.000 of them over the past years, saving the lives of thousands of animals.
- The PDC puts special collars around the dogs' necks, which serve both as tracking devices for monitoring the packs as well as prevention against dogs being choked or cut to death by snares.
- In their rehabilitation facility injured and orphaned wild dogs get nursed back to health so they can be released into the wild again.
- The PDC organizes bush camps and conservation clubs for local children to learn about their country's wildlife. Ignorance and prejudice against the dogs are a huge problem, and this way the future generations learn to love and protect the dogs.
- The PDC helps locals find better sources of food and income, so they do not have to hunt wildlife for food.
- Road signs are put in place to alert drivers of crossing dogs, and packs that often use the main roads are given reflective collars. These measures have already cut the number of road kills in half.
- In the arts center, around 25 artists are at work every day turning snares that have been collected by the anti-poaching unit into beautiful wire sculptures. Of course, these sculptures will be for sale at the convention!

Though the Painted Dog Conservation's work is very successful, there are sadly still many setbacks. As recently as last November elephant poachers have put cyanide in the wildlife's drinking water, killing an entire pack of 9 dogs and their 11 pups. The painted dogs need our help now more than ever!

How you can help

Here are some examples of how your donation could help:

€25 buys a pair of boots for a member of the Anti Poaching Unit.
€100 feeds the dogs in the rehabilitation facility for a month.
€450 buys a protective collar for a painted dog.
€9.000 keeps the Anti Poaching Units running for a full year.

There will be various events, activities and other opportunities to donate money during the convention to support our charity. Like last year, we will host a special charity art auction where you have the chance to bid on unique items donated by attendees (all sales go 100% to charity). In addition, this year we are also hosting a selection of items for silent bidding in the Art Show, so make sure you take the time to have a look! And like previous years we will once again have a lottery booth in the lobby. There will also be fursuiters collecting with our official sticker. And as something new, we have charity games tournaments this year, where you can win amazing prizes by playing computer games! Please check the schedule for the time and place of the tournaments. And other little fund-raising happenings will pop up here and there when you least expect it. In addition, representatives of the Painted Dog Conservation will be available for you at a booth in the lobby, where you can ask questions, buy items, and learn more about the dogs or maybe become a 'Friend of the Painted Dog'. And finally, by popular demand we have organized a charity concert featuring Fox Amoore and other performers! Check the schedule for the concert times. Tickets for it can be bought at the lottery booth.

Ways to support the Charity include:

- Making a donation in the collection boxes - any amount, large or small, will be greatly appreciated!
- Buy one or more lottery tickets in the lottery booth. Other items might also be on sale in the booth.
- Donate artwork or other unique items for the lottery booth and charity auction. Donations will be accepted at our desk in the Art Show from the opening of the Art Show setup on Wednesday and should preferably be received by the close of the Art Show on Thursday. Late donations may still be considered, but getting them in early makes our job easier!
- Bid on the charity auction items.
- Buy a ticket for the charity concert – but be quick, they sell out fast!
- Consider donating a percentage of your Art Show sales to charity (see more information on the bid sheets).
- Participate in the Charity Games Tournament.
- Buy snare-art or other items that the charity has brought at the charity booth, which is located next to the lottery booth.
- Go to one of the events hosted by the charity to learn about the painted dog, so you can teach others about the species as well!

Paws on Fire

The newest dance event coming to EF! Join in or watch enthusiastic dancers battle it out on the dance floor!
Paws on Fire is EF's adaptation of "Floor Wars", a popular event held at American conventions. With "Enter the Arena" growing in popularity, it was decided not to do dance offs during that event anymore. However, a lot of people really missed seeing two dancers firing move after move at each other, to try to overwhelm the other. With this in mind, "Paws on Fire" was born!
There will be both a fursuit category and a non-fursuit category, making this the first dance competition that you can enter without owning a fursuit! We know that there are many dancers out there who don't own a suit, and we want to make them feel welcome as well!
The competition will take place tournament-style, which means that every round is an elimination round. The winner advances to the next round, while the loser drops out of the competition.
You can be sure the finals will be a searing hot battle!
Are you ready to witness those brave contestants putting their skills to the test? Then make sure to be there and cheer for your favorites while they get their paws on fire!

WHEN?
Thursday - 20:00 | Club Stage, ECC Room 3

Enter the Arena

Welcome to "Enter the Arena"!
The official annual Eurofurence Fursuit Dance Contest.

During a spectacular two hour show, contestants from all over the world compete to show their skills on the dance floor to a cheering audience.
Performances can vary from sensual belly dancing to contemporary dance, hip hop, improv, original styles and even a mix of all the aforementioned combined.
Each contestant's performance is judged by a jury consisting of two male and two female judges, who will rate each contestant on style, originality and overall performance.

Come and be blown away by dedicated and skilled dancers that have mastered the art of popping and locking, tutting, contemporary dance, mixed krumping with Krav Maga and Aztec Warfare or just know every move from "Dance Central" and "Just Dance" by heart!
Cheer them on as they… Enter the Arena.

FURSUIT LOUNGES

Welcome to the Anthropomorphic Wellness Center.

If you are a fursuiter at Eurofurence, no matter if you're a DANGER-MOUSE, an AIRWOLF or a NINJA TURTLE, you are definitely in for a lot of interesting encounters in our FULL HOUSE. Maybe you've been to the Motorfurs meet and have seen all the cars and GOLDEN GIRLS. You might be bouncing with the GUMMI BEARS, listening to the cockroach's DUCKTALES, or chat with CHIP & CHAP.

You might even have a bad hangover from saying CHEERS with those FRAGGLES at the bar and MAGNUM-bottles way too often. Don't despair, the Fursuit Support A-TEAM has got you covered.

When you feel lost in the past we get you BACK TO THE FUTURE.

Take the QUANTUM LEAP into one of our well-equipped Fursuit Lounges and take your M.A.S.K. off.
As if MACGYVER and INSPECTOR GADGET designed them, they feature refreshments and mini snacks, cooling blowers and costume drying racks, a repair station and a coolpack freezer. There's just one unfortunate thing: having enough spaces on the powered drying rack for all 1.000 fursuits will always be a MISSION IMPOSSIBLE. So please be so kind to remove your costume from the powered dryer as soon as possible and give another fur the chance to use it. Thank you.

Both Fursuit Lounges are fursuiters-only areas, intended to offer a safe place to quickly cool down, get some refreshments, make repairs, dry their suits and change costumes without ruining the magic. To make the Fursuiters' stay in the Fursuit Lounges as convenient as possible, please respect the following rules:

- Only fursuiters may enter and stay in the Fursuit Lounges at any time, in and out of fursuit.
- Non-Suiters are not allowed to enter the headless area.
- The only exception are personal helpers, assisting a fursuiter with their costume. They can only enter the lounge hand-in-hand with the suiter for the time they are assisting, but not on their own.
- Suiters currently not in suit will need to present their personal fursuit badge at the checkpoint to enter the lounge.
- Please refrain from bringing glass cups/bottles into the lounge, to protect suiters from potentially broken glass.
- Photography and filming is strictly forbidden.

Main Lounge

The Main Lounge is located near the main stage, close to the dances and events. You can find all our services and plenty of space here. You should also gather here for the parade. This lounge will be locked at/over night.

Mini Lounge

With the size of the convention growing as it is, the Main Fursuit Lounge may occasionally be a struggle to reach if you are on the other end of the hotel and in need of a sip of water and a place to rest. Therefore we now have the Mini Lounge in the Estrel Hall Foyer, near the Lobby. (That is the room in front of the ConOps office.) A smaller location with protection blinds and fresh water around the clock, for a quick heads-off cool down.

OPENING TIMES

Main Lounge

09:00 - 02:00 or End of Dance

Mini Lounge

always open

The Main Fursuit Lounge is open every convention day from 09:00 and closes 30 minutes after the last event. Should you need to access the lounge after this, you can contact EF-Security over the hotline and kindly ask them to let you in. The Mini Lounge near the lobby is open around the clock.

Extra Days!

On Early Arrival Day the lounge is open from 18:00 to 02:00 the next morning.
On Sunday after the convention the lounge opens at 09:00. The breakdown of the lounge begins at 14:00. Please remove all your fursuit parts from the dryer systems by this time.
For the Dead Dog Dance the Main Lounge will operate with reduced equipment.

Fursuit Badge Pick-up and Printing

If you are a fursuiter, you most likely pre-registered for your free fursuit badge. The badge station is located right next to registration, where you can pick it up during service hours. If you forgot to pre-register your badge in time we can also produce your personal fursuit badge on site. Your first badge is free. For extra badges, we need to charge you a small fee of 2 Euro per badge.

Before fursuit badge pick-up, make sure you already checked in at the EF registration desk. You will need to show up in fursuit or present your fursuit's head upon pick-up, so we know you really are a suiter.
Your personal fursuit badge is your access key to enter the Fursuit Lounges out of suit. You do not need more than one badge, even if you have several suits.

Service Hours:

Tuesday:	11:00-19:00 (pre-reg pickup only!)
Wednesday:	11:00-17:00
Thursday:	11:00-13:00 and 16:00-18:00
Friday:	11:00-13:00
Saturday:	12:00-13:00

Fursuit Parade

The Eurofurence Fursuit Parade is traditionally an outdoor event if the weather permits it. Due to the layout of the hotel our current parade route unfortunately will have to include a couple of stairs. Should you be unable to use stairs in fursuit, please check the parade posters hanging in the lobby to find the wheelchair friendly parts of the route. Please be aware: Given the sheer number of roughly 1.000 registered fursuiters the parade will take more than one hour.

When? Thursday,15:00 (Encouraged gathering time: 15 minutes earlier)
Estimated ending between 16:00 to 17:00

Where? The parade starts and ends in the main Fursuit Lounge.

OPEN STAGE

Visitors,
If my calculations are correct, when this data sheet gets in your paws during the 80s ... you're gonna experience some crazy things. It's my pleasure to welcome you in this amazing time period and I can only imagine how interesting it must have been for you to be here.
I know, we are all new to this, well, … new … time travel experience, but it's really important to test the limits of this technology. Luckily you won't be alone during your system checks! I know the importance of sharing time with each other, so I made this as practical as possible for all of us.
In the ECC Foyer 1 you will find the so-called Open Stage. I was able to connect the PA system, the lighting and the projector with the on board computing unit. It's up to you to use them for anything you want. Be creative! The more activities you create for each other to enjoy, the better our test results will be.
If you want to use any of the installed systems or if you need help with using the Open Stage in general, please don't hesitate to ask ConOps. They are looking forward to assisting you in setting up your testing environment.
Please check the conference schedule to find out whether the Open Stage is ready to use in your desired time slot.
Sincerely yours,
~~Dr. P. Dragonclaw

FURSUIT GAMESHOW

It's the 80s! Everything is bright and colorful! . . .or is it? This year, one of the major TV networks is going to host an all new gameshow which will get the highest ratings yet! It is all about the ratings, isn't it? Join in as studio audience for our production of THE GAMESHOW!

As usual, the competition is between teams of two, so if you are a suiter willing to participate, be sure to pair up and be ready! If you can't find a partner, drop by anyway, we'll keep a list of single participants to mix and match!

"How are the teams selected?", and "Can I participate?" - Sure! That's what the preliminaries are for! We have taken your feedback into consideration and split the preliminaries into several smaller games again, yet they will be located close to each other and in public view, in the Rotunda! There are some mini-games to judge dexterity and acting capabilities. Also, you can add bonus points by collecting for charity for ten minutes. Overall you should be done in about 10-15 minutes, without the 10 minute charity run. The results - and thus the players for the stage show - will be on display next to the Fursuit Lounge entrance at about 19:00, give or take.

If you participate in the preliminaries, be prepared to be on stage for the main event too! We need eight teams (and a spare one) to go on stage after all! Also, if you are amongst the first ten teams, be sure to be at the stage briefing ON TIME as we need to assign the available game combinations to the teams and explain the games you are going to play! You need to attend both the briefing and the stage event for the full duration: 14:30-17:30. So please don't sign up if you can't make the time! The stage briefing can be attended without fursuit though.

Early sign up for the preliminaries is on Wednesday, 18:30-19:30. This is also the best opportunity to ask us questions! Regular sign up is on Thursday, 12:00-14:30. Both will be at the main registration desk!

The sign in station is also the place to get any questions answered that you still might have: just drop by early and ask us, we don't bite!

Keep in mind, that you have to run, jump, grab and throw things in suit. So be aware that even though we try to make these games safe for everyone, your suit has to take some physical action.

Sign up:

Early: Wednesday, 18:30-19:30, Main Registration Desk

Regular: Thursday, 12:00-14:30, Main Registration Desk

Preliminaries:
Thursday, 12:30-15:00, Rotunda

Stage Briefing, for the qualified teams:
Friday, 14:30-15:30, Main Stage

The Fursuit Gameshow:
Friday, 16:00-17:30, Main Stage

IT'S PHOTO TIME... SAY CHEESE!

The Fursuit Photoshoot is done on a tight schedule, please see the registration information in the "Fursuit Photoshoot Registration" event for details!

Group Photo

Don't miss out on the chance of your lifetime! Since we have to do this outdoors and are depending on the weather (and other conditions that might be beyond our control) we can only announce the "if" shortly before the event. Please check the Eurofurence announcements (Twitter, EF-App) shortly before!

IMPORTANT: Be there when the event starts! We will start the lineup exactly on time and take the picture once everybody is in position. Whoever is at the location by then will be in the picture, whoever isn't will not. This means that the whole thing should be over well before the scheduled end time, so there is time to get to the next events!

You can wear your human clothes or your fursuit at your own discretion, nude humans however will be dealt with by our trusted security members! The code of conduct applies here like with any public event!

The exact number of participants will be announced after the con, when we had time to count!

Fursuit Group Photo

We would like to invite you to join our lineup of what is the largest fursuit gathering in Europe! This is the opportunity to be part of the crowd and still get seen afterwards! Please note that we are doing a FURSUIT picture, the ground rule here: no blank human skin! Not even worn as a war trophy! Partial suits are OK if the clothing covers your human features. Kigus are OK if they can count as clothing for a partial suit at least.
We put the timeslot at the beginning of the fursuit friendly dance, since a large number of suiters will be around and in suit at this time anyhow. The precise number of suiters in the picture will be announced after the convention, when we had time to count!

Fursuit Photoshoot Registration

Registration is done at the main registration desk, first come first serve. Each block in the schedule has its own registration time, "Block 2" registration is only for "Block 2" openings! Once all for a block are taken, registration is closed again. The "to time" is thus a "approximate up until" time. Due to the large request for timeslots, we need to prefer those who didn't get a chance the year before.
You can still apply, but you might get turned back.

MOTORFURS

Yo gearheads! Do you crave the righteous roar of a boss engine? The purr of a sick Jaguar? The squeal of burning rubber? Then you need to book it to the Motorfurs meeting - where all car junkies are welcomed to show off their outrageous wheels, take a peek at what other road rashers got, and talk amongst like-minded mondo furs. Radical!
This haven for motorists will take place on the parking lot in front of the Estrel hotel (take a look at the map below for more details). Even if you don't have a car, bike or other motor vehicle, do stop by and you'll be welcomed with (oil-covered) open arms. Fursuiters are welcome, too.

Due to the nature of the event, and the location on-site, there are a few event specific rules that must be adhered to:

- No dangerous stunts – Anyone deemed to be driving dangerously will be asked to remove themselves and their vehicle from the event.
- No burnouts – Once again, offenders will be asked to leave.
- No damage to other cars/the car park/attendees – Please take care when parking and maneuvering and also be mindful of paintwork when looking through open windows.
- No wheel/tire markings to be left on the road's surface.
- No unnecessary noise – i. e. keep stereo equipment to tolerable levels, and no lengthy revving of engines.
- If you wish to look closer inside someone's vehicle, ask the owner. Do not just open the door and get in.

MOST OF ALL, STAY SAFE AND ENJOY THE EVENT!

DEAD DOG DANCE

Once more, another Eurofurence is over. Let's enjoy the last day at the hotel and celebrate the end of another fabulous Eurofurence full of fun and action.

Time

Sunday :	20:00 - 03:00	ECC Room 3

ARTISTS' LOUNGE

Do you like spending your evening around other artists, drawing and chatting about techniques, supplies and other topics? Then this social event, taking place every evening, is the right place for you to be creative and get to know each other!

Opening Hours

Daily:	10:00 - 03:00	Estrel Hall B

GAMES CORNER

LET'S PLAY

Come by and play some board or card games with like-minded furs.

Do you have a game that you are looking forward to play? Come bring it to the Games Corner! We provide a space for all sorts of board and card games. Whether it be Magic: The Gathering, Warhammer 40k or Agricola. All are welcome. Please contact Carijet to discuss any specific game you would like to organize that requires more planning.

The werewolves of Miller's Hollow

A game for at least 8 and up to 20 players (or more)

The villagers of Miller's Hollow are dealing with a menace. More and more are getting killed by deadly werewolves every night. They know that the wolves are among them, but nobody knows who it is. An interesting and socializing game about intrigue, lies and influence. Who's trustworthy and who is not?

Wolves and Humans, Engaging the Wild Within Us

Thu, Aug 18 at 10:00 to 11:30 | Dorothy Hearst | ECC Room 3

Wolves and humans have interacted for at least 40.000 years, and are in many ways representative of our lost wild nature. They are, therefore, revered by some and reviled by others. What can we learn from wolves about what it means to embrace our wildness, and what does it mean for us as a species?

Your First Furry Convention

Thu, Aug 18 at 10:00 to 11:30 | Dhary Montecore, Onkel Kage | Estrel Hall A

Come here often or is this your first time? If you're a virgin (ahaha) you will have a lot of questions. So why not join our old friends Dhary and Kage for some humorous ramblings about the things newbies always do wrong and what this convention-thing is all about. Bring beer and wine to help them remember the memories they tried to forget. ;)

Composing for Orchestra: Using MIDI Technologies - Improve your compositions and your mockups

Thu, Aug 18 at 12:00 to 13:30 | Karuno | Lyon

Getting performed when you write for orchestras is really hard. But composers have now access to virtual solutions to get a pretty realistic software rendering. Learn how to use those solutions to get the most out of your software with an experienced movie composer.

International Snack Exchange

Thu, Aug 18 at 12:00 to 15:00 | Kashi | Nizza

Hi! Have you always wanted to try snacks from other countries, but can't afford going there? Well, then this might be for you! At the International Snack Exchange, many excited furs bring snacks from their home countries to share. Come join the fun!

Real World Furries?

Thu, Aug 18 at 12:00 to 13:00 | Onkel Kage | Estrel Hall A

We happily dream of a world where Furries actually exist. What if they did, however? How would the human race (other than those who attend Eurofurence) react to the sudden appearance of animal-human hybrids? Let's have a discussion on many other interesting questions during the talk!

The Fox Panel

Thu, Aug 18 at 12:00 to 13:30 | Fauho, Shadowfox | ECC Room 3

The red fox is one of the world's most successful mammals. Defying massive persecution by man, foxes manage to prosper in the most diverse habitats all across the globe, from the lofty heights of Tibet to the crowded centers of European cities. Shadowfox will give you an informative yet entertaining tour through the realm of the red fox.

ARTIST ALLEY

As the Queen of Pop sang back in the 80s in her song "Like A Virgin":

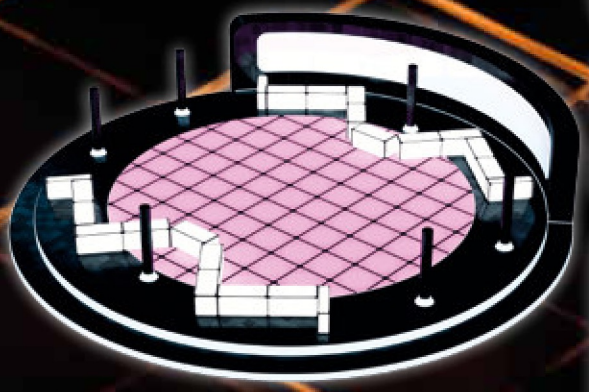
I was beat - incomplete
I'd been had, I was sad and blue
But you made me feel
Yeah, you made me feel
Shiny and new...

This is what we felt about the Artist Alley and decided that the idea was good, but the concept as it was meant to be, didn't work out as well as we hoped it would. So we gave it more than a second thought and renewed it. The Artist Alley is now taking place in the Rotunda on Friday 11:00 till Saturday 18:00. Here, artists who didn't get a table in the Dealers' Den or spontaneously decided to give it a try are given a place where to offer their services and goods.
The Artist Alley is meant to be a place where artists and guests can come together.

Like a virgin
Touched for the very first time

You are an artist, but never thought about applying for the Dealers' Den? Then the Alley might be yours to start with. No applying, just catch a table: "First come, first served".
Whenever there is an empty table, feel free to sit down and offer your services with sketches, badges, prints and a smile.

Artist Info: Selling art with adult content is not allowed - the Rotunda is a public area! If you are unsure, please contact the Dealers' Den team before seating starts.



A big seating plan and bulletin board, between Artist Alley and Dealers' Den, will guide you to who is sitting where.

OPENING TIMES

Friday 11:00 non-stop till Saturday 18:00

Artist Alley setup times

Setup for the entire Alley

Friday	10:30–11:00	setup
Saturday	18:00–18:30	cleaning

DEALERS'

Now look at them yo-yos that's the way you do it
You play the guitar on the mtv
That ain't workin that's the way you do it
Money for nothin' and chicks for free
Now that ain't workin that's the way you do it
Lemme tell ya them guys ain't dumb
Maybe get a blister on your little finger
Maybe get a blister on your thumb...

We don't know if our artists and dealers play a guitar on the MTV. And we doubt that they get money and chickens for free. But we do know that they have blisters on their fingers and thumbs from preparing all kind of different art, prints, sketches, books, comics, t-shirts and all different kinds of merchandise for your daily furry life. They also offer various other goods like selfmade liqueur, honey, sweet treats, jewelry, leather crafted goods or searched the world for great books and comics to bring to Eurofurence. Meet your favorite artist or just roam around.

Please note that some artists offer theme-related goods or Eurofurence-exclusive goods that you may not be able to obtain anywhere else.

At our Eurofurence Shop you can get old EF shirts and other leftovers. Missed a design? Ask what sizes are still in stock.

The list below provides a quick overview of who is sitting where. Possible changes to the seating plan will be announced on a large seating plan and bulletin board between the Artist Alley and the Dealers' Den. For more information about the artists you can download the Eurofurence smart-phone app, see page 14, or check out our twitter account "@EF_DealersDen" where we counted down with three artists a day till Eurofurence.

PARTEY!

Dealers' Den and Art Show will hold their reception again, like last year, where we open the doors between these two rooms for all the artists and dealers to get together, chat about art and other things. You are invited to take a look around in the Dealers' Den and the Art Show unhurriedly.

ART SH

Welcome to the EF22 Art Show! From the decades past, we bring you the precious cultural neon-colored masterpieces for all of you to gaze over!

Registration is needed for bidding: You will receive a sticker sheet with coded numbers once you have registered at our desk. Write your bid on it, and simply transfer the sticker to the bid sheet on the marked fields! You can bid any time and as often as you like. If you run out of stickers, simply ask for a further sticker sheet.

As the show wraps up on Friday, you will have a final chance at bidding in the Art Show Closing (but be prepared for fast and decisive action). The bidder registration will close half an hour before closing.

Items with a full bid sheet of fifteen bids go to voice auction on Saturday, followed by the charity auction.
Please note, that the auction starts earlier this year. The show starts at 11:00 with seating opening earlier.
You can pick up your purchase after this event at the sales. Please be prepared to pay cash – no plastic.
Accepted currency is Euro only; we can't exchange or accept dollars or pounds.

On Thursday, Dealers' Den and Art Show will hold their reception for registered artists and dealers again. Please refer to the Dealers' Den Page for further details.

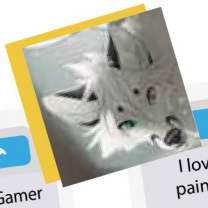
Front Inside Cover



Orphen Sirius

I love to draw animals and have been painting for many years, but only draw anthros for eight years. Furry means to me inner freedom, it inspires me.
